

Course Based Project (3 C's)

Critical Thinking

- Students are given an idea of the project by the teachers and students are expected to find an approach to implement that idea.

Collaboration

- Students work on the project in teams by collaborating with each other.

Communication

- The project work is communicated through out all the teams and submitted after successful completion.