 Dear Padmavathi,
 On behalf of Zebra Technologies, I am pleased to award you the title of University Innovation Fellow for your work on the project titled 'Smart Home Security System'. This award recognizes your exceptional work and leadership in this field. You have demonstrated a strong understanding of the technology and a commitment to innovation. We are confident that your work will have a significant impact on the industry and beyond. Congratulations on this well-deserved honor. We look forward to seeing you continue to excel in your work and contribute to the field of smart home security.

[UIF] Congratulations! New University Innovation Fellows @ VNR Vignana Jyothi Institute of Engineering and Technology

Dear Hitaarth, Padmavathi, Ratna Keerthana, Snigdha,
 Congratulations on becoming a University Innovation Fellow! We commend you on your hard work throughout training. You have invested a significant amount of time mapping your campus landscape and building strategies for change that are relevant to your school.
 Here's a message from the program team: <https://youtu.be/pjLdWjxg8wo>

As you heard from us in the video, now your work really begins. By mid-December, aim to accomplish something meaningful (perhaps another version of your prototype, or a pivot in your project to address a new need). If you are able to accomplish something by that time, we will publish a collection of your project change stories in the annual UIF print journal Change Forward. In late November, we'll send you
